

Welcome to 重庆 Chongqing

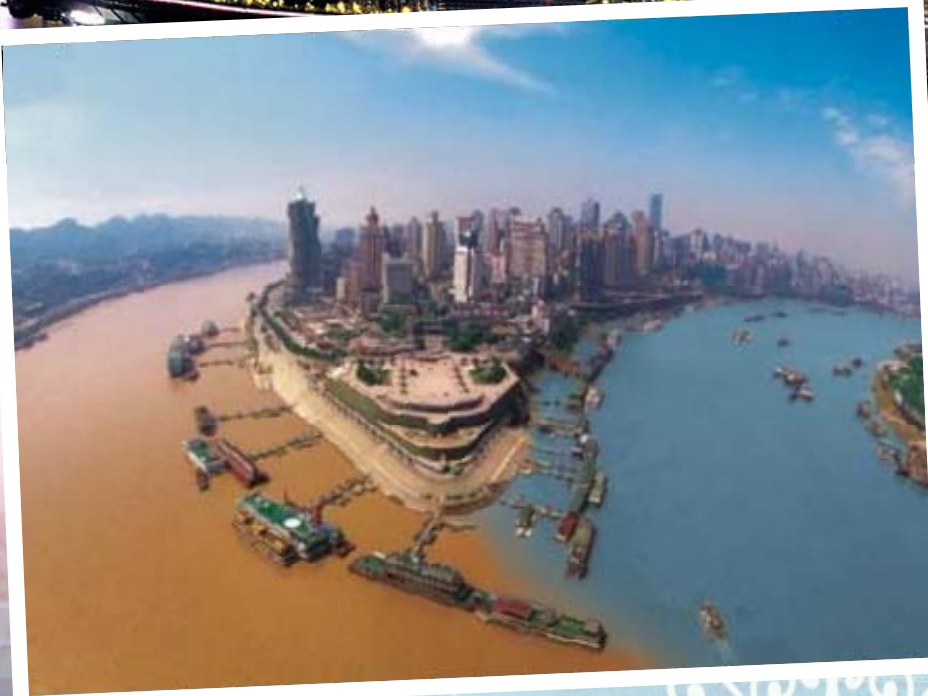

Meaning literally "double celebrations", Chongqing was built in the 11th century B.C. during the Zhou Dynasty. The city was founded in 1997. Prior to then, it was a city in Sichuan Province. Widely acknowledged as the largest industrial and economic center in southwestern China, Chongqing City is a popular destination for travelers with its hilly slopes, rivers, night views and spicy food.

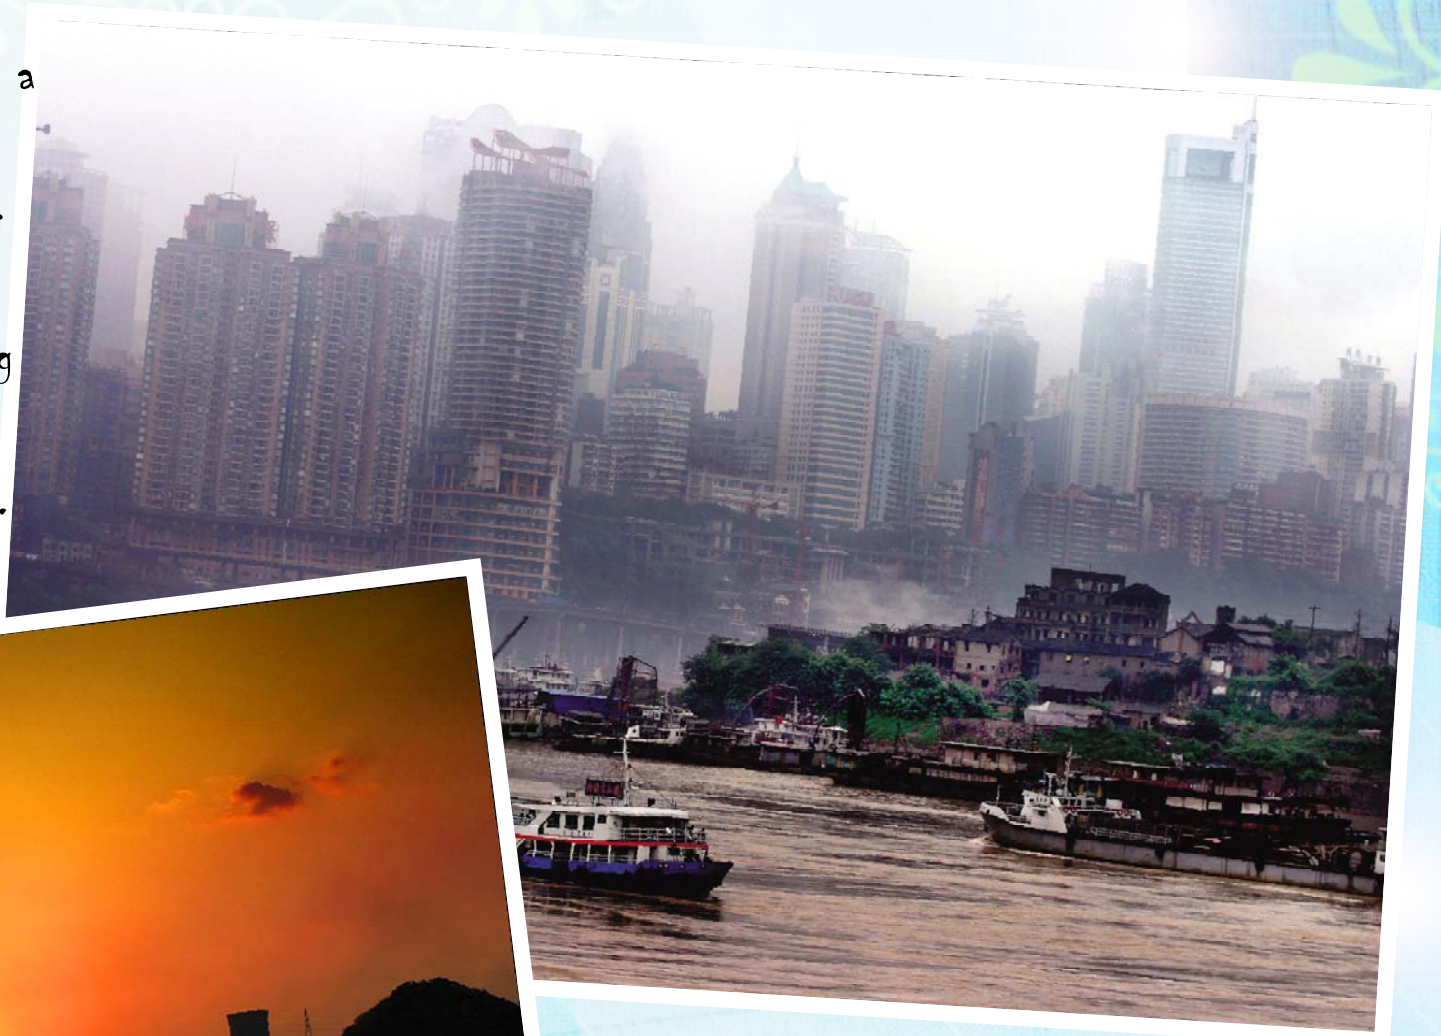

朝天门

Chaotianmen Port

Chaotianmen is not only a port but also a perfect place for overlooking the convergence of the Yangtze river and Jialing river, and viewing the scenery along the rivers.

解放碑

Jiefangbei

The largest business centre
of the city,
where you can go shopping or do some entertainments.

Hongyandong

红岩洞

Hongyandong is located in the downtown of Chongqing by the riverside of Jialing River. It used to be one of the top eight ancient sceneries. Hongyandong has a very special construction feature which is built on hillside and on riverside. Now what you are visiting is a newly built one, where we can enjoy a lot of local cuisine, such as Chongqing hot pot, Poached fish, braised pork and so on.

Ciqikou is an ancient town which now becomes a miniature and a symbol of Chongqing. In ciqukou, you can experience the lifestyle of old Chongqing and all kinds of characteristic snacks.

Ciqikou

磁器口

缙云山 Jinyun
Mountain

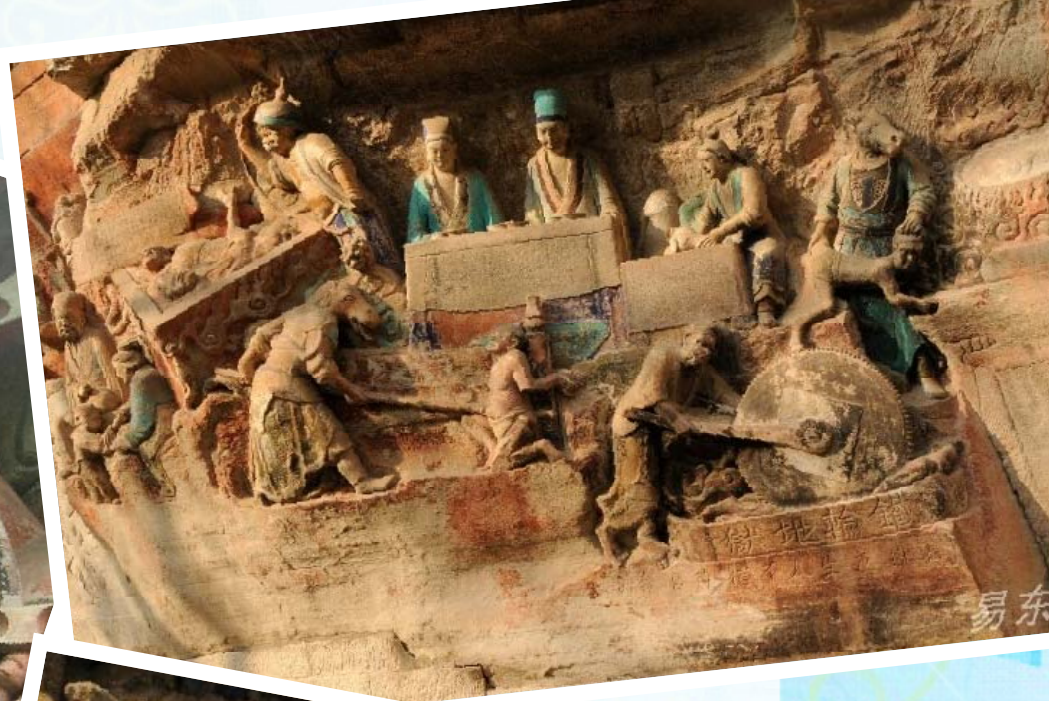

Jinyun Mountain, located in Beibei District, is known as the backyard of Chongqing and famous for its beautiful forests and spa.

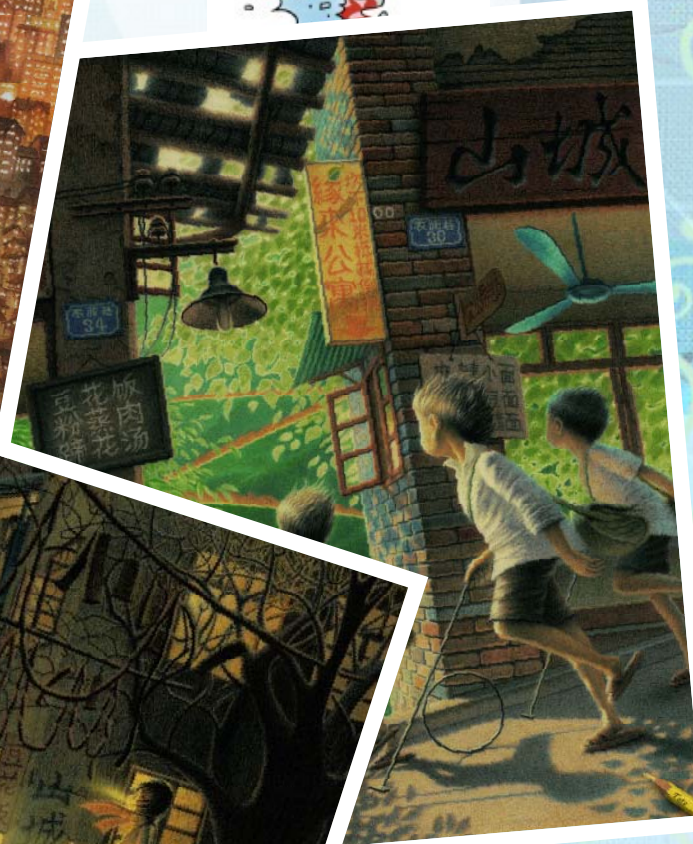

The carving work began in late Tang Dynasty and saw its heyday in the Song Dynasty. There are over 60,000 statues altogether. And there are many treasures.

大足 Dazu Stone Carvings

The end